Citrus growers hope state funding will help stem diseases

03/04/2009 02:00:00 AM
By JESSICA KLIPA, BradentonHerald.com

The Florida Department of Citrus is stepping up the battle against citrus greening and other diseases with $10.8 million for research. Contracts were signed last week to begin funding research projects through the University of Florida Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences.

Click here for the full story
Citrus growers hope state funding will help stem diseases.
Citrus growers hope state funding will help stem diseases

Find this article at:

Check the box to include the list of links referenced in the article.